

SF Indulgence diploid italian ryegrass

indulge your most important business partners

General fit: SF Indulgence is the world first release of the unique new DipQ concept. The DipQ tag has been assigned to Seed Force varieties that have measured levels of improved quality which are drivers of animal production. and can improve profitability.

SF Indulgence is a fine leaf, densely tillered and persistent italian ryegrass. It has now demonstrated

Australian release: 2008

Sowing rate:

- Oversowing kikuyu 30–40kg/ha
- >850mm Irrigation 30–40kg/ha
- 700–850mm rainfall 20–25kg/ha
- 500–700mm rainfall 20kg/ha
- Overdrilling perennial pastures 15kg/ha

Livestock suitability: Dairy, beef & Sheep

FEATURES	BENEFITS
• Diploid Italian Ryegrass	• High tillering and dense variety
• DipQ status	• Cool season quality benefits of a tetraploid • Warm season persistence and quality of a diploid
• Excellent disease rating with very low rust	• Late season feed maintaining high quality

Relative Forage Ratings - compared to industry standards

Italian ryegrass	Winter Yield	Spring Yield	Summer Yield	Total Yield	Flowering Tetila = 0	ME MJ	CP %	NDF %	Meat Value	Milk Value	no. of trials
SF Indulgence DipQ	100	105	99	113	+14 days	11.20	24.77	43.67	+$164	+$339	22
Feast II	101	103	105	105	+12 days	11.13	26.45	44.17	+$117	+$255	17
Crusader	100	100	100	100	+12 days	10.88	23.53	46.50	$0	$0	19

* yields based on up to 23 trials in Australia from 2006-2009.

* Italian ryegrass feed nutritive value data based on sample taken prior to each of 6 grazing periods at Gundagai 2008 and analysed by NSW DPI Feed Quality Service.

Delivering greater value from seed